Sir

I have the honour to inform you that Mr. S Raghavendra Rao BA who was granted a Dadabhai Dass Scholarship of £200 per annum in Government Order No. 3133-5/Edn 484-07-7 dated 24th September 1909 for Mining and Metallurgy reports that he secured a First Class in both the First and Second years Mining examinations and the first prize for his notes of inspection of a Colliery. He will be entering on the third year course in October next.

2. With regard to the practical portion of mes Gaming, he is required to put in two months every year in some mine, as per Syllabus of the University and he desires to put in more time at the mines - He states that these mines generally charge £ 5 every week and requests that his Scholarship may be enhanced by £ 50 per annum to enable him to learn practical mining - He reports that Mr Ajit Mohan Sen who was a Government of India Scholar before he was a Damodar Dass Scholar was paid by the Government of India during 1906-07 an extra amount of £ 92-6-0 in addition to his Scholarship of £ 150 to meet his fees for the Session and fees for Practical Training in Mines, thus making a total Scholarship amount of £ 242-6-0. A Copy of Mr Ajit Mohan Sen's expenses for practical training and fees is enclosed. Mr Raghavendra Rao makes this application on the advice of Mr I Arnold Educational Adviser to Indian Students at the India Office.

3 Under the above circumstances, I recommend that Government may be pleased to sanction an increased amount £ 50 Scholarship for Mr S Raghavendra Rao for the second year (1909-10) of the tenure of his Scholarship.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
H J Bhabha
